Please list names of all adults and also the ages of all children living in the house

Please describe your home (house, apartment, suburb, urban, rural, etc. If you live in a condo, you need a different puppy than the hunting preserve owner)

Do you have another dog?
What Breed?

Will you have your Vizsla spayed or neutered?

Where did you get your last dog? (i.e. breeder, shelter, etc)

Do you prefer a male or female?

Do you have a preferred sire or dam for your puppy?

Vizslas can require anywhere from 20 minutes to 2 hours of exercise per day, depending on the individual dog and what they are used to getting. Do you have adequate space nearby to provide this?

You are required to take your puppy to a vet within 96 hours of purchase. Do you currently have a vet?
Who?

All puppies are initially sold on Limited Registration. This does not prevent you from doing anything with your dog except for competing in the show ring and being able to register offspring with the AKC.

At a later time, the Limited Registration may be lifted if I feel the dog is of breeding quality and has an OFA hip rating of Good or Excellent. Do you find this acceptable?

Do you plan to crate train your puppy?

Do you work outside of the home?

Occupation and hours worked by adults (This does not determine placement of pups, but rather helps me suggest a puppy-proof situation suited to your needs. If you will be called out on emergencies you need a different puppy management system than the puppy who will only be left alone for planned outings)

How many hours, on average, will the puppy be left alone?

If you cannot keep the dog, it must be returned to me at your expense for evaluation and placement into a new home. Do you agree to do this?

Will you enroll in beginning obedience classes (Puppy Kindergarten)?

Have you placed deposits with other breeders?

I know that each of you is looking for a good pet. The following are things you can do with your puppy, please select what you will do or think you may be interested in doing with your puppy. This helps me guide you towards which puppy most suits your needs and situation.

Field Trials

Please tell me anything else you think that I need to know about you, your family, etc.
